Latin-rock band from Jersey lights up Mercy Lounge tonight

There's certainly plenty of popular country hitting the stage today, what with CMA Music Festival in full swing, bringing out a tumble of established names and up-and-comers.

If you count yourself more a fan of the blues-y, multicultural rock churned out by Carlos Santana or Los Lonely Boys than the country shindig's offerings, though, New Jersey band deSol's stop at Mercy Lounge (1 Cannery Row, 251-3020) is a particularly apt choice.

Songs off the band's self-titled Curb Records debut have been paralleled to a continuation of Santana and Matchbox Twenty singer Rob Thomas' "Smooth" pop collaboration (by our sister publication, All the Rage, to be specific). And it'd be pretty hard to find a more accurate comparison.

The band's 18+ show starts at 9:30 p.m., and tickets are $8. n
